The following story appeared in The Bramby Sentinel, a local free paper.

No Path Through The Woods?

Bramby Council is planning to sell Bramby Woods. The path through the woods, which is a favourite of local people and dog walkers, may close. The Council's plan would enable the woods to be developed for housing. This would bring in much needed income to the Council. The money raised, said a spokeswoman, would be used to build a centre for the elderly.

What do you think of this? Is the Council right? Send your letters to the editor.

You want to share your views on this subject. Write a letter to the editor explaining your feelings about the council's plan to sell Bramby Woods. Your letter should be about 150 to 200 words in total.

Remember to:

- plan your answer
- use correct spelling, punctuation and grammar
- write clearly and effectively.
